

LYNSAY E. ROWLAND | ATTORNEY

Lyndsay is an attorney in the Fort Washington office and focuses her practice in creditor's rights, workouts, loan restructuring and litigation for her clients. She serves a wide range of clients, including banks and corporations, in areas including:

- Debt restructuring and workouts;
- Equipment leasing, finance and recovery;
- Bankruptcy and reorganizations;
- Secured transactions;
- Residential and commercial foreclosures; and
- Issues involving the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

Lyndsay is licensed in the state and federal courts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, assisting clients with filing lawsuits for money judgments as well as foreclosures of real property and replevin of secured property. Once judgments are obtained, she uses her experience to advise clients in locating assets of defendants, repossessing secured property and executing on outstanding judgments.

Additionally, Lyndsay assists and provides guidance to clients with respect to the liquidation of SBA guaranteed loans once those loans have gone into default. The assistance can range from consultation on a liquidation plan to forbearance and loan modification agreements to assistance with guaranty purchase packages.
